

SECOND CIRCULAR

Dear Colleagues,

Thanks for your interest shown for participation in IGRS-2012. The response of our first circular was overwhelming and we received 145 abstracts from all over the globe for the presentation in IGRS-2012. We are expecting more than 150 delegates to attend the symposium. As the dates of the forthcoming symposium are coming nearer, it is my duty to inform all of you about the current status of the organization activities.

The preparation for arranging the symposium is going on in full swing. Please prepare yourself to attend the symposium as per announced schedule, i.e. June 10-14, 2012. The acceptance letters have been sent to individual author. We could accommodate 126 papers (36 oral and 90 posters) and 20 invited talks for the presentations during the symposium. Please check the mode of presentation of your papers in following Tables:

Please check the status of your paper by reference number given on the top of your acceptance letter. Facilities for power point presentation will be made available for oral presentation. The duration of oral presentation would be 15 minutes including discussion. A space of 4'x 3' will be made available to display the posters. Authors are requested to be present in front of their poster during the poster session. However, they need to display the poster for full day. The technical programme will be displayed shortly on the web page. Please visit web page www.igrs.webs.com frequently for latest update of the symposium.

If your paper has been accepted, we need your confirmation in writing by E-Mail about your participation in the symposium. I also request you to send the registration form and fee (if not already sent) as early as possible. Please note that accommodation will be booked only for those who confirm their participation in writing before 20 May 2012. Please confirm your participation with date of arrival and departure. The weather in New Tehri is very pleasant in June with temperature ranging between 20 °C to 25 °C. However, it is advisable to keep a light warm jacket for sudden change in weather condition.

Accommodation will be arranged for all delegates from June 10-14, 2012 (Five days) in the hotels as per their choice given on registration form. Students will be accommodated in university hostel. Students accompanying their spouse/family members will be accommodated in hotel on chargeable basis. For accommodation details, please contact following persons:

Prof. B.S. Bisht: +91-9411187599,      Dr. Subodh Kumar: +91-9411187603

We are planning to pick all delegates from Dehradun Airport and Haridwar Railway Station on 10 June 2012. So, please plan your journey accordingly so that you can board the vehicle at Dehradun Airport or Haridwar Railway Station as per above mentioned schedule. Otherwise the delegates may reach to New Tehri at their own by bus or taxi (about three hours journey from Haridwar and Dehradun) as per the details given in first announcement. For transport arrangement, please contact following persons:

Those who want to participate in symposium without a paper are also welcome. However, they need to send their registration form and fee with the confirmation of participation immediately. No financial assistance for accommodation, travel, etc will be provided except otherwise informed individually.

Finally, on behalf of the Organizing Committee, I once again request you for your participation to make the symposium a successful event. We are ready to welcome you in the modern New Tehri town for the Symposium. We wish you a very happy journey to New Tehri.

With my personal regards,

R. C. RAMOLA
Convener, IGRS-2012
